

2004 Events

"Buy Time in Jerusalem" Campaign

The Foundation held a charitable Iftar on the 17th of Ramadan 1425, the 31/10/2004. The Campaign was dedicated to the support of libraries established by the Foundation at youth centers. The Campaign continued throughout the month of Ramadan, during which the Libraries Friends Committee, a voluntary committee emanating from the Foundation, collected donations and coordinated the event.

The inauguration of a library at the Palestinian Vision Institution

The Faisal Al Hussein Foundation funded the establishment of a library at the Palestinian Vision Institution, at its headquarters in Ibn Batoutah Street in Jerusalem. The project comes within the framework of a program to support the establishment of libraries to serve the youth in Jerusalem. The library at the Palestinian Vision Institution aims at encouraging youth to read and provide this service to reading fans in various fields in addition to making available scientific resource books for school and university students. The library will serve the members of the Palestinian Vision institution, mainly comprising of university students, in addition to students of surrounding schools and residents of the area.

Supporting the Prince of Jerusalem athletic matches

The Foundation sponsored the Prince of Jerusalem championship for football, basket-ball, and table-tennis organized by the Association of Jerusalem Clubs. The football matches started on the 12th of September with the participation of 21 clubs. The matches aim at:

1. Sustaining and continuing sports activities.
2. Nurture the athletic generation.
3. Attract audiences anew to Jerusalem playgrounds to reach a stage of forming a team of Jerusalem youth.

Memorial ceremony

On the 31/5/2004 , the Foundation commemorated the third anniversary of the passing away of the late Faisal Al Hussein. For this occasion, the Foundation organized several events to commemorate him, including a visit to his burial place in the vicinity of Al-Aqsa Mosque, the sponsoring of the graduation party of the Faisal Al Hussein class of Senior High School students of the Fatah Al Laji'ah Secondary Girls School.

